

Mechanical backhoe U Series

sigma 4
THE LOADER.

The backhoes from the U series allow moving earth by using the rear hitching of the tractor. They are complete with a mechanically shifting frame.

Main features

Independent support feet with piloted locking valves

They increase translation while ensuring safety in all working conditions.

Ergonomically positioned seat easily accessible and adjustable, allowing operation in conditions of perfect visibility for greater comfort and work safety

Technical data sheet

	U170
Tractor power range	20-30
Excavation depth	1700
Frame width	1100
Total weight	285